

ECO5 Workshop 2009

The Maryland-MIT-Harvard-UMass-UConn Workshop in Formal Linguistics

Saturday, April 4, 2009
University of Maryland, College Park
Marie Mount Hall 1304

Program

8:30	Registration & Breakfast (provided by the department) [Marie Mount Hall 1108B]
8:55	Opening Remarks by Prof. Norbert Hornstein
9:00	Hsu-Te Cheng (UConn) Null Arguments in Mandarin Chinese
9:30	Emerson Loustau (UMass) Stage and individual-level agreement in Mohawk
10:00	Hiroki Narita (Harvard) Multiple Transfer in service of recursive Merge
10:30	Break [Marie Mount Hall 1108B]
11:00	Bronwyn Bjorkman (MIT) Go Get, Come See: the Syntax of a Double Verb Construction in North American English
11:30	Brad Larson (Maryland) Asymmetries between wh-extraction and Right-node Raising in Tagalog
12:00	Lyn Shan Tieu (UConn) Verb copying in Chinese: A unified analysis
12:30	Lunch (provided) [Marie Mount Hall 1108B]
1:30	Martin Walkow (UMass) Agreement Asymmetries in Modern Standard Arabic and the phi-features of Traces
2:00	Hazel Pearson (Harvard) Towards a semantics for group nouns
2:30	Rafael Nonato (MIT) What is quantification again?
3:00	Break [Marie Mount Hall 1108B]
3:30	Dave Kush and Akira Omaki (Maryland) On the Universality of RC-Islands
4:00	Zhanna Glushan (UConn) Animacy and Unaccusativity in Russian
4:30	Beste Kamali (Harvard) Incorporation and Case in Turkish
5:00	Igor Yanovich (MIT) How likely to be viable is a PF theory for A-reconstruction?
5:30	Closing remarks by Prof. Howard Lasnik
	Business Meeting
7:00ish	Dinner

Organizers: Maki Kishida and Shiti Malhotra